RECORD SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.

SENATE.

The Speaker presented a memorial of J. Warren, an American citizen, now confined as a felon in a British jail. The memorial states that he was in New York when the offense for which he was tried was committed. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Sumner presented a petition of Kentucky sailors asking for the equalization of bounties.

Mr. Cragin, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill to regulate the selection of grand and petit jurors in Utah, and for other purposes. It forbids polygamy and makes the issue thereof a crime. It also provides for the equalization of bounties and the equalization of the land law exempting from taxation the land of the United States.

Mr. Cragin gave notice that he would call the bill up at an early hour.

Mr. Sherman called up the bill exempting from internal tax raw cotton grown after this year. The measure advocated the necessary immediate action.

Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, thought it a great mistake to act upon this subject at present time. He would prefer to have the bill taken up at once, and in his opinion, it would be far better to abolish the tax on raw cotton.

Mr. Johnson said the bill should apply to the present crop, and gave notice of an amendment to that effect.

Mr. Towner, of Ohio, said that Northern men would not go down to make cotton with the tax on it, and if they did not go he would not go either.

He was anxious to have the tax removed, but thought it should not apply to the present crop, as it was no longer in the hands of the producer. The bill was then postponed.

Mr. Wilson called up the House bill securing to families of soldiers the right to which they are entitled, with amendments, which he said more than accomplished the object desired.

Mr. Edmunds said the amendment provided that if the soldier died, and his wife and children died, the bounty should go to the next heirs. This was going far, and he moved for providing that it should only extend to the wife and children.

The amendment was agreed to, and the bill then passed.

The motion of Mr. Doolittle, refusing to adjourn from the 20th of December to the 21st, was agreed to.

The House resolution passed—24 against 19.

Petitions were presented in relation to material sufficiency; repeal of the cotton tax; from colored soldiers relative to bounties, and against the reduction of bounties.

PARIS, Dec. 13.

It is said that the Minister of Foreign Affairs has sent to Florence a telegram to the Italian Government, asking it to fix the date of the claims of Italy on Rome, based upon a and in a sense identical with the speech of Minister Roubin in the Corps Legislatif.

PARIS, Dec. 13—Evening.

It is reported that the Corps Legislatif, which is now in session, will soon be dissolved, and new elections will be held in January next.

FLORENCE, Dec. 13—Evening.

Serious apprehensions are entertained of an insurrection in Naples, in which the Government have been unusually violent.

GLASGOW, Dec. 13.

An attempt was made to get up a funeral for the Manchester Fenians to-day, but was checked by the interference of the authorities.

BELFAST, Dec. 13.

Extensive preparations had been made by the friends of Allen, Gould, and Larkin to hold a public funeral to-day, but the Government, by a proclamation by the Lord Lieutenant, put a stop to the demonstration.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.

Commissioner Rollins was today in consultation with the Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Matthews, and the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Sherman, and the Secretary of the War, Mr. Dyer, in relation to the examination of spirit money.

A committee of manufacturers and dealers in spirits had an interview with the Committee on Ways and Means, and presented a memorial, asking for an amendment to the law relating to the examination of spirit money.

The Indian Peace Commissioners met last night at the War Department, and discussed the question of the examination of spirit money.

On motion of Mr. Matthews, the House adjourned.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, defended it. Mr. Lawrence yielded to many interruptions, and his speech was not heard.

The London Times on Naturalization.

President Johnson's Views Supported.

Bold Attempt to Release Col. Burke.

Clerkenwell Prison Blown Up.

LONDON, Dec. 13.

The London Times commends the acceptance of President Johnson's views on the disputed questions of naturalization and allegiance as expressed in his annual message.

The Government has decided to institute proceedings against John Martin and other parties who made treasonable speeches in the House of Commons on the 10th inst.

The Times says that the holding of the European Conference and the settlement of the Roman question would be a mockery after the recent speech of the Secretary of State, Mr. Roubin, in the legislative assembly.

Advices from Shanghai say that Hon. Anson Burlingame would soon leave Peking for London, on a mission for the Chinese Government.

A daring attempt was made to-day to relieve the recent arrests of Col. Burke, who is confined in Clerkenwell prison. Powder was placed beneath one of the prison walls, and exploded, it is supposed, by Burke's followers.

The whole side of the wall was blown into the air. Three adjoining buildings were destroyed, and the explosion was heard in all directions. It is feared that some lives were lost. Much confusion prevailed in the vicinity, and it is difficult to ascertain the truth.

LONDON, Dec. 13—P. M.

The explosion at the Clerkenwell prison had very serious results, but was not successful in facilitating the escape of Burke. The prison was severely damaged, and the walls were blown into the air.
